

PROCEDURES FOR SERVICE COMPLAINTS

Talk or Write to the CAS Worker, Supervisor or their Director - Sometimes, you can work things out directly with the Children's Aid Society (CAS) worker, supervisor or their Director of Service. Every attempt will be made to respond within 24 hours of receipt of the concern/complaint.

Complain in writing to the CAS – If you are not satisfied after speaking to the Supervisor or Director, you can complain in writing to the Children's Aid Society (CAS) using the Formal Complaint To A Society's Internal Complaints Review Panel \(ICRP\) form. This form can be found on our website at www.wecas.on.ca or on the Ministry's website at: <https://forms.mqcs.gov.on.ca/en/dataset/006-3249>

Complain in writing to the Child and Family Services Review Board - The Child and Family Services Review Board \(CFSRB\) is separate from the Children's Aid Society (CAS). It is responsible for reviewing certain actions and decisions of CAS. The Board can only review certain things, such as if CAS:

- wouldn't review your complaint
- didn't give you reasons for their decision
- didn't give you a chance to be heard
- didn't follow certain timelines when responding to your complaint

NOTE: You do not have to complain to CAS before going to the CFSRB.

Visit the following website for more information on filing an application with the CFSRB:

Complain to the Ontario Ombudsman regarding French Language Services (FLS) - If you are having trouble receiving government services in French, you can contact the Ontario Ombudsman to make a complaint. Visit the following website for more information: <https://www.ombudsman.on.ca/en/make-complaint/what-we-can-help-you/french-language-services>

Complaints about our Information Practices – Societies are required by Part X of the Child, Youth and Family Services Act, 2017, to protect privacy and enable access to, and correction of, records of personal information in their custody or control related to the provision of a service. We encourage you to contact us with any questions or concerns you might have about our information practices. If your privacy questions have not been answered or issues not resolved to your satisfaction, you can make a formal privacy complaint in writing to our Compliance and Privacy Officer at pofficer@wekas.on.ca. If you feel that your concerns have not been addressed to your satisfaction, you have the right to complain to the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Ontario \(IPC\). The IPC acts independently of the government and societies to oversee Ontario's access to information and protection of privacy. The IPC can be reached at: Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner, 2 Bloor Street East, Suite 1400, Toronto ON M4W 1A8, Telephone: 416-326-3333; Toll Free: 1-800-387-0073; TDD/TTY: 416-325-7539, Email: info@ipc.on.ca

Complaint about Accessibility – If you wish to file a complaint against the agency about accessibility or the way we provide services to people with disabilities, contact the agency by using our Accessible Customer Feedback Form. This form may be found on the agency's website at www.wecas.on.ca under Accessibility. The completed form can be dropped off or emailed to info@wekas.on.ca. A response will be provided within 14 days of receipt.
